Rendez à Dieu
(Psalm 118)

Louis Bourgeois
(1510- 1561)

Bread of the World in Mercy Broken

Bread of the world in mer - cy ken, Wine of the soul in cy shed,

bro- mer-

This system contains the first five measures of the piece. It begins with a treble and bass staff in G major (one sharp) and common time. The first three measures are in common time, and the last two are in 3/2 time. The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing harmonic support. The lyrics are written below the staves, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across measures.

By whom the words of life were ken, And in whose death our sins are dead:

This system contains measures 6 through 10. It continues the musical themes established in the first system. The time signature changes to 3/2 for the first three measures and back to common time for the last two. The lyrics continue, with a hyphen at the end of the first line indicating a syllable that continues into the next system.

Look on the by ken, Look on the tears by sin - ners shed, heart by sor - row bro-

This system contains measures 11 through 15. The time signature changes to 3/2 for the first three measures and back to common time for the last two. The melody features some chromaticism, with a sharp sign appearing in the treble staff in measure 12. The lyrics continue, with a hyphen at the end of the first line indicating a syllable that continues into the next system.

And be thy feast to us the ken, That by thy souls are fed.
