Crossing the bar

Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Sir Joseph Barnby

(1838-96)

Sun - set and eve - ning star, And one clear call for me! And may there be no moan-ing of the bar, When I put out to sea, But such a tide as mov - ing seems a - sleep, Too full for sound and foam, When that which drew from out the bound - less deep Turns a - gain home.

Twi - light and eve - ning bell, And af - ter that the dark! And may there be no sad - ness light and eve - ning bell, And of fare-well When I em - bark; For, tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place The flood may bear me far, I hope to see my Pi - lot face to face When I have crost the bar.
