1. From the Cross the blood is falling,
And to us a voice is calling,
Like a trumpet silver-clear;
'Tis the voice announcing pardon,
"It is finished," is its burden,
Pardon to the far and near.

2. Peace that precious blood is sealing,
All our wounds forever healing,
And removing every load;
Words of peace that voice has spoken,
Peace that shall no more be broken,
Peace between the soul and God.

3. God is love; we read the writing
Traced so deeply in the smiting
Of the glorious Surety there.
God is light; we see it beaming
Like a heavenly dayspring gleaming,
So divinely sweet and fair.

The second system of the musical score continues the piece. It features a treble staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The bass staff continues with a bass clef, the same key signature, and common time. The music is composed of chords and single notes, primarily using the right hand in the treble and the left hand in the bass. The system includes three verses of lyrics, each corresponding to a line of music. The lyrics are: 1. From the Cross the blood is falling, And to us a voice is calling, Like a trumpet silver-clear; 'Tis the voice announcing pardon, "It is finished," is its burden, Pardon to the far and near. 2. Peace that precious blood is sealing, All our wounds forever healing, And removing every load; Words of peace that voice has spoken, Peace that shall no more be broken, Peace between the soul and God. 3. God is love; we read the writing Traced so deeply in the smiting Of the glorious Surety there. God is light; we see it beaming Like a heavenly dayspring gleaming, So divinely sweet and fair.
