

♩ = 120

♩ = 120

O Babe! in manger lying

W. Chatterton Dix
(1837-1898)Joseph Barnby
(1838-96)

O Babe! in man - ger ly - ing, O child most fair to see, The first - fruits of the

Gen - tiles, By star were led to thee; We now with joy - ful wor - ship Do haste to Beth - l'hem town, To greet thee with thy Moth - er, to greet thee with thy Moth - er, to greet thee with thy Moth - er And humb - ly there fall down.

Full A sweet the mer - ry chant - ing The an - gel choirs do and make, With such for march - ing mus - ic Who would not tra - vel so take? Though wind be sharp and pierc - ing, And snow lie deep to - mer - ry, And sing, they be so glad: But this dear Child, and all sor - row And Will kind - ly take a - night, Much cheer and good a - waits us, much cheer and good a - waits us, much way, And crown the joy - ful - heart ed, and crown the joy - ful - heart ed, and cheer crown and the good joy - a ful - waits heart - us, ed And With love bliss shall that warm lasts us for quite. aye.

34

39

43

The Star o'er - head burns bright - ly, And we go on a - pace; And Let pre - sent - ly are in Sweet Babe! most con - des - cend - ing, O by thy spot - less birth, And Let light a - rise in spy - ing A mean and shame - ful the place. There come, we make low - knock - ing, The dark - ness, And peace come to ful the earth; Rest for the hea - vy - la - den, And 54

49

shep - herds ope the door, And In straight - way Christ our in Sav iour, and straight - way Christ our joy for those that weep, And In Beth - le - hem in Jew iour, and Beth - le - hem in

59

Sav Jew iour, and in straight - way Christ our in Sav - iour We wor - ship and imp - lore. Jew ry, in Beth - le - hem in Jew - iour We Our God doth al - ways keep.