

♩ = 80

♩ = 80

Joseph Barnby
(1838-96)

The sower went forth sowing

William St Hill Bourne (1846-1929)Sopranos

The sow - er went forth sow-ing, The seed in se - cret slept Through weeks of faith and
Be - hold! the heaven - ly So - wer Goes forth with bet - ter seed, The word of sure sal -
Wi - thin a hal - lowed a - cre He sows yet o - ther grain, When peace - ful earth re -

7 Harmony

pa - tience, Till out the green blade crept; And warmed by gol - den sun - shine, And pa - va - tion, With feet and hands that bleed; Here in His Church 'tis scat - - tered, Our cei - veth The dead He died to gain; For though the growth be hid - den, We 12 rit.

fed by sil - ver rain, At last the fields were whi - tened To har - vest once a - gain. O spi - rits are the soil; Then let an am - ple fru - tage Re - pay His pain and toil. Oh, know that they shall rise; Yea e - ven now they ri - pen In sun - ny Pa - ra - dise. O

18 a tempo

praise the heaven - ly Sow - er, Who gave the fruit - ful seed, And beau - teous is the har - vest, Where in all good - ness thrives, And sum - mer land of har - vest, O fields for - e - ver white With 22

rit.

watched and wa - tered du - ly, And ri - pened for our need.
 this the true thanks - gi - ving, The first fruits of our lives.
 souls that wear Christ's gi - ment, With crowns of gol - den light.

26

Unison Harmony

One day the heaven - ly Sow - er Shall reap where He hath sown, And come a - gain re -

32

joic - - - ing, And

33 with Him bring His own; And then the fan of judg - ment Shall win - now from His floor The 39

Slower Harmony

chaff in - to the fur - nace That flam - eth e - ver - more. p O ho - ly, aw - ful Rea - per, Have

45

mer - cy in the 46

day Thou put - test in Thy sic- kle, And cast us not a - way. A - men.