(136-79)

The first system of the musical score is written for piano in B-flat major (two flats) and common time (C). It consists of two staves, treble and bass. The melody is primarily in the treble staff, featuring a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. There are three accents (^) above the treble staff in the third measure. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

The second system of the musical score begins at measure 8. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The treble staff has a few more notes, including a sharp sign (#) in the second measure. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment.

The third system of the musical score begins at measure 10. The melody in the treble staff continues with a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff has a more active line with some sixteenth-note passages. The system ends with a double bar line.

The fourth system of the musical score begins at measure 17. The treble staff has a few more notes, including a sharp sign (#) in the second measure. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment, ending with a double bar line.

1 Thou art coming, O my Saviour,
 Thou art coming, O my King,
 In thy beauty all resplendent,
 In thy glory all transcendent;
 Well may we rejoice and sing:
 Coming! in the op'ning east
 Herald brightness slowly swells:
 Coming! O my glorious Priest,
 Hear we not thy golden bells?

2 Thou art coming, Thou art coming:
 We shall meet thee on thy way,
 We shall see thee, we shall know thee,
 We shall bless thee, we shall show thee
 All our hearts could never say:
 What an anthem that will be,
 Ringing out our love to thee,
 Pouring out our rapture sweet
 At thine own all-glorious feet.

3 O the joy to see thee reigning,
 Thee, my own beloved Lord!
 Ev'ry tongue thy name confessing,
 Worship, honour, glory, blessing
 Brought to thee with glad accord;
 Thee, my Master and my Friend,
 Vindicated and enthroned;
 Unto earth's remotest end
 Glorified, adored, and owned.
