Thou didst leave Thy throne

Emily Steele Elliot
(1836-97)

Veni, Domine Jesu (10 8. 11 8. 88)

The first system of musical notation for 'Thou didst leave Thy throne'. It consists of a treble and bass staff in B-flat major (two flats) and common time (C). The melody is primarily in the treble staff, featuring eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system of musical notation, continuing from the first. It maintains the same key and time signature. The melody continues with various note values, including a first ending bracketed with a '1' over it. The accompaniment in the bass staff continues to support the melody.

13 Refrain

The Refrain section of the piece, starting at measure 13. It features a treble and bass staff. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides accompaniment. The section is marked with a piano (p) and a pianissimo (pp) dynamic. The lyrics are written below the staff, and the section ends with a double bar line.

p O come to my heart, Lord Je - sus, There is room in my heart for Thee. A - men.

pp

1 Thou didst leave Thy throne and Thy kingly crown,
When Thou camest to earth for me;
But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room
For Thy holy nativity.

R: O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for Thee.

2 Heaven's arches rang when the angels sang,
Proclaiming Thy royal degree;
But of lowly birth didst Thou come to earth,
And in great humility. R:

3 The foxes found rest, and the birds their nest
In the shade of the forest tree;
But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou Son of God,
In the deserts of Galilee. R:

4 Thou camest, O Lord, with the living word
That should set Thy people free;
But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn,
They bore Thee to Calvary. R:

5 When the heavens shall ring, and the angels sing,
At Thy coming to victory,
Let Thy voice call me home, saying "Yet there is room,
There is room at My side for thee."
My heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
When Thou comest and callest for me.
