The first system of the musical score is in 3/2 time, key of D major (two sharps). It consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic and features a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system continues the piece, starting at measure 10. It includes a crescendo (cresc.) marking in the bass staff. The treble staff has a first ending bracket over measures 14-15. The system ends with a double bar line.

The third system begins at measure 18 and includes three verses of lyrics. The music continues in the treble and bass staves, with first ending brackets for each verse. The system concludes with a double bar line.

1. When the twilight gathers fast,
With a quiet still and deep,
When the busy day has passed,
And the weary "falls on sleep."
When the lifelong toil is o'er,
At the setting of the sun,
Comes joy for evermore,
With the Master's word, "Well done."

2. 'Mid the tread of many feet,
'Mid the hurry and the throng,
In the burden and the heat,
Have the working hours seemed long?
Softly the shadow falls,
And the pilgrim's race is run;
While through celestial halls,
Resounds the glad, "Well done."

3. Well worth the daily cross;
Well worth the earnest toil;
Well worth reproach and loss,
The fight on stranger soil!
Let us lift our hearts and pray,
And take our journey on;
Work while 'tis called today,
With the thought of that, "Well done."
