

Some Sweet Day

Tony Jackson - Ed Rose - Abe Olman - 1917

= 146

A

Al - though it's spring the birds don't sing You're leav-ing me to - day. It's not the first time my poor heart has been in pain this way. In win-ter time you're good and kind, For - ev - er by my side, But when sum-mer's near you dis-ap - pear, Don't ev - en say good - bye. You're goin' to long for me some - day, But I'll be far a - way. 'Cause when the cold wind does blow with its ice and its snow, Then your heart soon will melt for each sor - row I have felt. And when your friends turn a - way, time will prove what I say. Now's your time,

B

G⁷
 I'll have mine Some Sweet Day. (Yes, Some Sweet Day.)
C C⁷ C^{dim} G⁷ C