

43. To-morrow

Simon N. Patten

Samuel S. Wesley

The tune is called Aurelia. Samuel S. Wesley (1810-1876), was a nephew of John and Charles Wesley, the great preachers and hymn writers. The most commonly used words for

1. O God, of all the Mak - er, Thy gift as seer dis - play, Re -
2. May all that now di - vides us Re - solve and pass a - far Like
3. To - mor - row, O, to - mor - row What hope we have in thee to
4. To - mar - row, O, to - mar - row Re - plete with wholesome joy, No

6
veal to us the glo - ry Of shad - ows flee with dark - ness Be - gain the shall crowning and beau - ty Of more shall pain and sor - row Hu -

8
They long-prom-ised day. Is not the time ap - proach - ing, By proph - ets long fore - fore the morn - ing star. May faith in man grow strong - er, May strife and discord - what is yet to be. When all the world a - bout us Shall ev - er-more im - man - i - ty an - noy. In sweet an - tic - i - pa - tion We bear the hard de - told, When all shal dwell to - geth - er One Shep - herd and one fold?

13
cease, The scar of war ef - fac - ing Thro' har - mo - ny and peace.
prove, When high and low com - bin - ing As broth - ers on - ward move.
lay To share with all cre - a - tion Thy long, long - promised day.