

XVII. Where Sinne sore wounding,

TENOR.

John Dowland

Where Sinne, where Sinne sore woun - ding, sore woun - ding dai - ly doth op - presse me, There Grace a - b
 Though Sinne, though Sinne of - fend - ing, of - fend - ding dai - ly doth tor - ment me, Yet Grace a - n
 The wound, the wound Sinne gave me, Sinne gave me was of Death as - sur - ed, Did not Grace s sinnes stripe, sinnes stripe is heal - ed, is heal - ed and his sting a - ba - ted, Deaths mouth is

So that re-sound-ing still I shall con-fessesthee, Fa-ther of mer-cy, mer - cy, Fa - ther of mer-cy, Fa - the
At my lives end - ing will I hope pre-sent mee Cleare to thy mer-cy, mer - cy,Cleare to thy mer-cy,cleare to
So thou wilt have mee to thy love in - ur-red free with-out me-rit, mer - it, free with-out me-rit, free wi
ThyLove re - veal - ed,and theyGrace re - lat-ed Gives me this spi-rit, spir - it, Gives me thisspi-rit, gives m