

Jesus nimmt die Sünder an

BWV 113/5

Johann Sebastian Bach

arr. André Papillon

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is a single melodic line in treble clef, featuring eighth and sixteenth notes with some rests. The middle and bottom staves are grouped by a brace, representing the piano accompaniment in treble and bass clefs. The piano part includes chords and moving lines in both hands, with some sixteenth-note patterns in the bass.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. The top staff features a more active melodic line with many sixteenth notes. The piano accompaniment in the bottom two staves includes some rests in the upper voice and moving lines in the lower voice, with triplets indicated by a '3' over the notes.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. The top staff features a series of triplets in the first half, followed by a final melodic flourish. The piano accompaniment continues with moving lines in both hands, ending with a final chord in the upper voice and a sustained note in the lower voice.
