Old Folks at Home

Words adapted

Stephen C. Foster
(1826-1864)

Way down up-on the Swan-ee Ri-ver, far, far a-way, there's where my heart is All round the lit-tle farm I wan-dered, when I was young, then ma-ny hap-py One lit-tle hut a-mong the bush-es, one that I love. Still sad-ly to my turn-ing e-ver, there's where the old folks stay. All up and down the days I squan-dered, ma-ny the songs I sung. When I was play-ing mem'-ry rush-es, no mat-ter where I rove. When will I see the whole cre-a-tion, sad-ly I roam, still long-ing for my child-hood stat-ion, with my broth-er, hap-py was I; Oh, take me to my kind old moth-er, bees a-hum-ming, all round the comb? When shall I hear the ban-jo strum-ming, and for the old folks at home. All the world is sad and drea-ry ev'-ry-where I there let me live and die. home?

down in my good old home?
