

II. Sweet stay a while,

BASSUS.

John Dowland

Sweetstay a while, why will you rise? The light you see comes from your eyes: The day breakes not, it is my hea
Deare let me dye in this faire breast, Farresweet-er than the Phoe-nix nest. Love raise de - sire by his sweete char

O stay, O stay, or else my joyes, my joyes must dye, And pe-rish in their in - fan - cie.
And let, and let, thy blisse-full kiss - es, kiss-es cher - ish Mine in-fant joyes, that else must perish.