they grow by whom, by whom they grow,
- ers all pow - ers else de - pend,

10
Songs to the Lord, to the Lord would I make, him that heaven, that heaven and earth hath wrought,
but my brest is now too weeke, too weeke,

12
Dark - nesse, Dark - nesse, from my minde then take,
Him that Him that all things framde of nought, trum - pets trum - pets shrill the ayre should breake,

15
For thy rites, thy rites none may be - gin,
Him that all, that all for man did make,
All in vaine in vaine my sounds I raise

16
Till they feelee thy light Till they But made man thy light But made Bound - lesse pow - er asks Bound - lesse
