

Home on the Range

Traditional

D D G G D

v1 Oh, give me a home where the buff - a - lo roam, where the deer and the v2 Where the air is so pure, and the zeph - yrs so free, and the breeze - es so v3 How of - ten at night when the heav - ens are bright with the light of the v4 Yes, give me the gleam of a swift moun - tain stream, and the place where no v5 Oh, give me the mine where the pros - pec - tors find, the gold in its

7 E7 A7 A7 D D G

ant - e - lope play. Where sel - dom is heard a dis - cour - ag - ing balm - y and light, that I would not ex - change my home on the glit - ter - ing stars. I stood there a - mazed and asked as I hurr - i - canes blow. Oh, give me the park where the prai - rie dogs own na - tive land. and the hot springs be - low, where the sick peo - ple

13 G D A7 D D D A7

word, and the skies are not cloud - y all day. ch Home, home on the range for all of the cit - ies so bright.
gazed, "Does their glo - ry ex - ceed that of ours?"
bark, and the mount - tains all cov - ered with snow.
go, and camp on the banks of the Grand.

20 D D Bm E7 A7 A7 D D

range, where the deer and the ant - e - lope play. Where sel - dom is heard a dis -

28 G Gm D A7 D D

cour - ag - ing word, and the skies are not cloud - y all day.